

Indian Institute of Banking & Finance

Clarification for Public Interest – Recruitment Process

It has been brought to the notice of the Institute that some unscrupulous elements are sending false e-mails offering job in our Institute. The emails are falsely stated to be from Indian Institute of Banking & Finance. Kindly note that our Institute has not sent any such mail and also does not authorize any third party (such as vendors, placement services, recruitment agencies etc.) to make any employment offers to the applicants / candidates on behalf of the Institute and does not collect fee /recruitment charges etc. for referring and placing applicants / candidates with the Institute. The Indian Institute of Banking & Finance is taking appropriate steps to tackle this issue.

In the meantime, the candidates are hereby advised not to respond to any fraudulent emails and not to make any payments. If any such entity / individual fraudulently representing Indian Institute of Banking & Finance approaches the job seekers, and the candidate pays any fee / charges / payment to them, it will be at a sole responsibility of the candidate. Indian Institute of Banking & Finance will not accept any liability for the actions of candidates on such spoofed mails / communication.
