

62nd International Banking Summer School (IBSS)-2009
at New Delhi & Agra (INDIA) from 30th August to 10th September 2009

THEME : STRATEGIES FOR THE ERA OF TURBULENCE & CHANGING CONTOURS OF BANKING

Sunday – 30th August 2009 :

Welcome Address / Dinner at Hotel Le Meridien, New Delhi at 6.30 pm – by Mr. R.Bhaskaran, CEO, IIBF – welcoming all participants and wished them innovative learning experience from the best of speakers across the globe alongwith field visit to the site. The School will have various case studies in different countries, panel discussions on current topics, viz.,

- 1) Changing Contours of Risk
- 2) New frontiers of Banking
- 3) Emergence of Inclusive Banking
- 4) Governance – issues in banking & finance
- 5) Talent Management
- 6) Risk Derivatives
- 7) Information Technology

Address by Chief Guest – Dr.Saumitra Chaudhuri, Member, Planning Commission, Government of India on “Indian Economy – An Overview”. Dr.Chaudhuri touched upon various aspects of Indian Economy and the development role of RBI and Government of India. Other issues covered were trust and solvency; import and export collapse; economy downturn – collapse of Lehman Bros.; credit default swap; reduction in CRR; open market operations; cut in excise duty; managing risk; preparing for continued risk, 75% oil reserve in OPEC countries; financial innovations; India’s GDP growth; public private partnership in infrastructure investment, dot com boon, etc.