BACKGROUND

During its 98 years of its existence, Indian Institute of Banking & Finance (IIBF) has emerged as a premier institute in the banking industry. Considering the emerging requirements of the bankers in a dynamic environment, IIBF has been offering certification courses and training programmes to the banking professionals and other individuals.

The training programmes are designed in consultation with the industry experts and Subject Matter Experts with an endeavour to upskill on a continuous basis. The regular offerings in varied areas prepare the banking professionals ahead of the impending change.

IIBF offers, alongwith other modes, virtual training programmes for its Blended Certification courses and many other programmes to facilitate learning across the country.

IIBF also has state-of-the-art training facilities at its Leadership Centre at Mumbai. It also has seven Professional Development Centres (PDCs) at Delhi, Chennai, Kolkata, Mumbai, Lucknow, Bangalore & Guwahati with residential facilities at Delhi to accommodate approx 45 participants at a time to cater to the increasing demand for focused training programmes.

PURPOSE

The Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code' 2016 consolidates laws for the reorganization and insolvency resolution of almost all entities which includes Corporates, LLPs partnerships, Proprietorships and individuals in a timely manner.

The program aims to equip banking professionals with an understanding of the Code, the procedures for resolving stressed assets, and the bankers' role in the insolvency process, thereby enhancing their ability to make sound commercial decisions for all stakeholders.

Since its inception, the IBC has significantly shifted the loan repayment culture. Banks are now updating their employees on the Code, amendments, and relevant judicial rulings to effectively tackle criticalstressed accounts .
