Macro Research: 2022-23

Indian Institute of Banking & Finance (Estd: 1928) is working with a mission "to develop professionally qualified competent bankers and finance professionals primarily through a process of education, training, examination, consultancy/counselling and continuing professional development programmes. One of the objectives of the Institute is to promote research relating to Operations, Products, Instruments, Processes, etc. in Banking and Finance and to encourage innovation and creativity among banking and finance professionals. With this in view, in 2003, the Institute had started to fund research studies on selected areas in banking and finance, known as 'Macro Research', the term macro suggesting the scope of the research and to distinguish it from the other research initiative of the Institute namely the 'Micro Research'. Under the Macro Research scheme, the Institute invites proposals from research scholars from universities, colleges and banks to take up research in identified areas.

Topics for Macro Research:

The Institute encourages empirical research in which, the researchers can test their hypothesis through data (primary/secondary) from which, lessons can be drawn for the industry (banking & finance) as a whole. In this regard, the Institute invites Macro Research Proposals for the year 2022-23 on the following topics. (See important clause on copyrights below¹)

1. Digital Banking: Boon or Bane
2. Effectiveness of Business Correspondents & future prospects
3. Sustainable Financing: Possibilities & Way Forward
4. Impact of recent regulatory changes on growth of MSMEs with specific reference to banks
5. Impact of Government sponsored banking schemes on India's socio-economic development
6. Reinventing HR – Women in Banking

Does India need different types of banks?

Who can participate?

Teams sponsored/identified by research organizations/institutes, as well as individuals presently serving in banks/corporates/research organizations/institutions having a proven track record, are eligible to apply.
