

Indian Institute of Banking & Finance

MICRO RESEARCH PAPERS: 2022-23

Indian Institute of Banking & Finance (formerly The Indian Institute of Bankers) was established in 1928 and is working with a mission “to develop professionally qualified competent bankers and finance professionals primarily through a process of education, training, examination, consultancy/ counselling and continuing professional development programmes”. One of the objectives of the Institute is to promote research relating to operations, products, instruments, processes, etc. in banking and finance and encourage innovation and creativity among banking and finance professionals. ‘Micro Research’ is a sort of an essay competition for members of the Institute (bankers) to present their original ideas, thoughts and best practices on areas of their interest. This initiative was started in 2004-05. Since then, the Institute invites Micro Research papers every year, on topics identified by the Research Advisory Committee of the Institute.

The competition is open to life members of IIBF, who are presently working in banks and financial institutions. In this regard, the Institute invites Micro Research papers for the year 2022-23 on the following topics. (See important clause on copyrights below¹)

1. Transformation of Indian Banking System in next 10 years
2. Evolving Customer preferences towards banking services
3. Deepening of Government Bond Market
4. Impact of Russia-Ukraine crisis on Indian forex market
5. Recent challenges to inflation management in India
6. Role and Relevance of Account Aggregators in the Digital Ecosystem
7. Green bonds - Role and Scope in India's Financial and Fiscal Landscape

The essays/papers will be judged on their content/relevance and originality. The authors of the accepted papers will be rewarded with a citation and cash prize ranging from Rs. 5,000/- to Rs. 15,000/- depending on the merit of the paper. The copyrights of the selected essays/papers will lie with IIBF.
