

Indian Institute of Banking & Finance

Micro Research papers for the year 2014

Indian Institute of Banking & Finance (formerly The Indian Institute of Bankers) was established in 1928 and is working with a mission “to develop professionally qualified competent bankers and finance professionals primarily through a process of education, training, examination, consultancy / counselling and continuing professional development programme”. One of the objectives of the Institute is to promote research relating to operation, products, instruments, processes, etc. in banking and finance and encourage innovation and creativity among finance professionals. 'Micro Research' is a sort of an essay competition for members of the Institute (bankers) to present their original ideas, thoughts and best practices on areas of their interest. This initiative was started in 2004-05. Since then, the Institute invites Micro Research papers every year, on topics identified by the Research Advisory Committee of the Institute.

The competition is open to life members of IIBF, who are presently working in banks and financial institutions which are the Institutional Members of the Institute. Members of the Institute are free to submit papers on original ideas on any topic including the following topics for Micro Research, 2014. (See important clause on copyrights below¹)

1. Gold loans
2. Bitcoins
3. Jan Dhan Scheme
4. FSLRC (Financial Sector Legislative Reforms Commission)
5. AML/KYC
